

EXAMENS D'ADMISSION
EN SECTION DE RELATIONS INTERNATIONALES

SESSION Juin 2016

EPREUVE ECRITE D'ANGLAIS

Durée de l'épreuve : 01h30

SUJET DE :

Master 1 « Relations Internationales »
Master 1 « animateurs de Cluster et Réseaux Territoriaux »

Rendre le sujet avec la copie

Aucun dictionnaire, ni matériel technologique n'est autorisé.

Ces deux sujets à traiter obligatoirement

Write an article on the following topic:

You have been asked by the editor of a monthly magazine to write an article in English assessing some of the positive as well as some of the negative impacts of social networks and social media in today's world.

(300 - 350 words)

Essay:

"Everyone on this planet should be entitled to enjoy the same consumer pleasures that richer countries' citizens already enjoy". Discuss.

(300 - 350 words)

EXAMENS D'ADMISSION
EN SECTION DE RELATIONS INTERNATIONALES

SESSION Juin 2016

EPREUVE ECRITE D'ANGLAIS

Durée de l'épreuve : 01h30

SUJET DE :

Master 2 « Communication Internationale »

Aucun dictionnaire, ni matériel technologique n'est autorisé.

Rendre le sujet avec la copie

Ces deux sujets à traiter obligatoirement

Write an article on the following topic:

You have been asked by the editor of a monthly magazine to write an article in English assessing some of the potential benefits and drawbacks of the 'sharing economy movement'. Consider its impact on the consumer society, forms of communication and how it is changing, even revolutionising, business models.

(300-350 words)

Essay:

"Money buys happiness". Discuss.

(300-350 words)

EXAMENS D'ADMISSION
EN SECTION DE RELATIONS INTERNATIONALES

SESSION Juin 2016

EPREUVE ECRITE D'ANGLAIS

Durée de l'épreuve : 01h30

SUJET DE :

Master 2 "Intelligence Economique et Gestion du Développement International "

Aucun dictionnaire, ni matériel technologique n'est autorisé.

Rendre le sujet avec la copie

Ces deux sujets à traiter obligatoirement

Write an article on the following topic:

You, as a freelance journalist, were asked by the editor of the University magazine, 'Actu', to write an article on the recent Symposium you attended which was entitled 'Brain Drain': why many 'educated people' leave some European countries for a better life elsewhere'. A number of reputable scholars and specialists in the field of 'education, mobility and coaching' gave thought-provoking lectures on this topic.

(300-350 words)

Write an essay:

"Businesses are embracing the idea of working in teams. Managing them is harder".

Schumpeter, The Economist, 19/03/2016.

(300-350 words)

EXAMENS D'ADMISSION
EN SECTION DE RELATIONS INTERNATIONALES

SESSION Juin 2016

EPREUVE ECRITE D'ANGLAIS

Durée de l'épreuve : 01h30

SUJET DE :

Master 2 "Management de Projets de Coopération de l'Union Européenne"

Aucun dictionnaire, ni matériel technologique n'est autorisé.

Rendre le sujet avec la copie

Ces deux sujets à traiter obligatoirement

Write an article on the following topic:

You, as a freelance journalist, were asked by the editor of the University magazine, 'Actu', to write an article on the recent Symposium you attended which was entitled 'Brain Drain': why many 'educated people' leave some European countries for a better life elsewhere'. A number of reputable scholars and specialists in the field of 'education, mobility and coaching' gave thought-provoking lectures on this topic.

(300-350 words)

=====

Write an essay:

"Businesses are embracing the idea of working in teams. Managing them is harder".

Schumpeter, The Economist, 19/03/2016.

(300-350 words)